MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: New York Times Query re John Franklin Campbell Article in October Edition of Foreign Affairs

25X1

1. Late on 9 October Mr. [] telephoned to advise that a Mr. Ben Welles of the New York Times had telephoned to inquire as to the Agency's position on the statement in the John Franklin Campbell article in the October edition of Foreign Affairs []

[] Mr. [] had asked Mr. Welles whether he had spoken to the Department and he had not. I told Mr. [] that I agreed with his first reaction, namely, that queries should be put to the Department and also that it would be inappropriate for CIA to comment. He indicated that he would query the Department during the following week.

2. I then telephoned Mr. William Goodman to inform him and he pleaded for time to attempt to find proof within the Department. I passed this to Mr. [] but learned that he had already recontacted Mr. Welles. Mr. Welles reacted that he had not expected the Agency to respond and he went on to talk about the total Campbell article urging it on Mr. [] as a good piece. I telephoned Mr. Goodman again to report this and he indicated he would attempt to get the word to some appropriate authority within the Department Friday evening.

3. Mr. [] talked to Mr. Goodman who had already been in touch with appropriate Department officials. It is expected that later today a meeting will be held to arrive at a Department position. As of mid-afternoon 12 October there was no indication that Mr. Welles had been in contact with the Department.
